My grandmother and mother were always busy in the kitchen preparing meals and desserts for our family and special occasions.

We always had company at our house and we enjoyed entertaining family and friends. I'd like to share this heritage with you by preparing delicious meals and desserts for your meeting, party or very special celebration.

We welcome special requests and will customize a menu to suit your specific needs. We can also offer low-carb, low-sugar items.

We can also provide you with a variety of food gifts to help you find a unique gift for that special person or client.

We can also do box lunches for your meeting or special gathering.

Macri's Homestyle Catering is located at 100 Brown St., Suite 14, Middletown, PA 17057.

Take-out catering can be picked up anytime by appointment.

We can also schedule an appointment with you to discuss your catering needs when it's convenient for you.

Please give me a call to help you prepare a beautiful celebration.

Thank You!

Mary Macri Hess
